

Please don't make any exceptions. It will get out of hand, again. There is nothing worse than trying to put a toddler to bed and being interrupted by the telephone. It is an irritation during dinner, as well.